The strength of Modern American Combative Arts is the instructor Staff! We are not a gun shop trying to sell you guns. We are not a fancy range. We bring you combat proven tactics and weapon handling techniques taught by professionals with uniquely qualified backgrounds and instructional capabilities with operational expertise. We know what works. With over 60 years of Military, Special Forces/Special Operations, and Law Enforcement experience, our instructors are world class. We have NRA certified instructors, Sig Sauer Master Instructors that travel nationally to support the Sig Sauer Academy, and also we have over 20 combined years of teaching experience at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center. Our instructors have taught thousands of Military and law enforcement students worldwide. It doesn't matter if you are a Law Enforcement Officer, Military, or civilian; we will make your shooting the best that it can be by providing you with the latest tactical and technological advantages. Learn the basics or increase your skills with the best.
